SHOPPING MAULED

A COLLAGE DRAMA BY CHARLOTTE MARSH & PETER MORRISSEY

Shopping Mauled! takes a quirky look at that most mundane of activities, shopping. Ever lost your car in a multi-story car park? Ever wondered at the evolution of the shopping trolley? Is there really such an occupation as trolley whisperer? These and many other questions will be looked at in the Basement Theatre November 28-30.

PETER MORRISSEY (Drama Theatre)

With the winning post now in sight, as we approach the end of year holidays we head into our latest offering from youth theatre with the senior primary classes' production of Shopping Mauled.

Shopping Mauled is a collage drama that focuses on that favourite of pastimes, shopping. Cabaret, satire and high melodrama all get a run in this cheeky critique of our consuming passions as we stroll through the aisles of discontent. An overly zealous marketing manager decides to call upon Santa for a mid year sale at the Mega-Mall, while disaster looms in the shape of a mystery backpack. Complaining shoppers, hair dressers, shop-lifters, charity collectors, check-out operators and green activists are all in there as is the ever present looming catastrophe that has everyone spooked; recession! Shopping Mauled plays in the Basement Theatre at 7pm on Thursday 28th, Friday 29th and Saturday 30th November. We hope to see you there!

Peter

SPOTLIGHT ON YOUTH THEATRE

JESSICA PAPST (High School Musical Theatre)

It is with great anticipation that the Musical Theatre classes approach December. With the fabulous Phantom of the Opera now closed, we have full reign of the Main Theatre to, very quickly, finalise the 2013 production, BATTLESCARS. The students have been rehearsing extended hours in preparation for show week and the production team are burning the candle at both ends as many of us also worked on Phantom.

It takes a village to raise a child, and it takes an army to produce something of this calibre. I'd like to take the opportunity to thank Tony, Martina, David, Mark, Terri, Butch and the whole crew for their efforts so far, and in advance of the hard work that is ahead of us.

BATTLESCARS begins tech on Sunday 1 December, with our season running from 5-8 December (tickets available at www.spotlighttheatre.com.au or at the Box Office/Costume Hire Shop for a very reasonable price).

Without the support of the whole Spotlight Theatre community and the flexibility and support of our parent community, we wouldn't be able to accomplish this amazing feat – a challenging, entertaining and soulful musical production starring 70+ bright, young performers.

Many of the students in our classes have been balancing end-of-year school events, Schoolies Week celebrations and exams with our rehearsal schedule and key roles in BATTLESCARS. Their dedication to their craft is commendable and has only seen them miss a very small portion of our rehearsals. They know how important it is to attend and be prepared for these types of rehearsals and it has been so encouraging to watch their commitment inspire the younger performers to rise to the challenge. The cast is working very well together to create a memorable show. We really hope you can join us for what is shaping up to be our best production yet.

Pre-enrolment forms will soon be available for students to reserve their place for the 2014 Youth Theatre year. Look out for them in your inbox soon, or speak to us at BATTLESCARS. Blessings for the festive season and hopefully see you in the foyer!

Jess

NOTE TO YOUTH THEATRE PARENTS

PRE-ENROLMENTS FOR 2014 YOUTH THEATRE CLASSES

In the next few weeks pre-enrolment packages for 2014 will be given out. Pre-enrolling in a class for next year means that you secure a place in your preferred class and that you do not have to attend the Orientation Day in January. There will also be a slight increase in term fees next year. Invoices won't be sent out until next year.

Dear Ms Drew

My wife Ruth and I had the privilege to attend last night's performance of The Phantom of the Opera and wow, what a performance!

We have seen wonderful productions of Andrew Lloyd Webber's The PHANTOM of the OPERA in London, Sydney and twice in Las Vegas, but last night's performance was the most memorable of all. It was intimate, emotive and thoroughly enjoyable.

As Mayor, I am so proud to see such quality, home-grown talent and it would be appreciated if you would pass on our congratulations and encouragement to everyone involved in this local Gold Coast production. The cast and their characters were perfectly 'matched', in particular Melanie Smart as Christine Daae.

Once again, congratulations on a successful, and highly engaging performance.

Yours sincerely

TOM TATE
MAYOR

The Phantom of the Opera

exceeded expectations and many prospective patrons missed seeing this spectacular musical even though two extra performances were added to the season.

At one performance a scene was done by torchlight during a storm induced blackout. A standing ovation was given - congratulations to Mark Shepherd, crew and cast with special thanks to a local Supermarket for helping out with battery supply.

Congratulations to Tony Alcock, Michael Sutton, Mark Shepherd and everyone who worked so hard to bring this extravaganza to fruition.

[title of show] written by Hunter Bell with music and lyrics by Jeff Bowen is a 90 min one act musical that chronicles its own creation as an entry in the New York Music Theatre Festival. Two friends, Jeff (Oliver Thomson) and Hunter (Stephen Hirst) have three weeks to write an original musical and with help from their friends Susan (Anna Sofroniou) and Heidi (Lisa Marie Gargione) they decide to write about their experience of writing a show.

[title of show] is also about friendship, about taking a risk, killing a few vampires and not letting go of a dream.

GOLDEN GIRLS NEWS

This month the Golden Girls rehearsals will be over for the year. We have a lot of fun and satisfaction in the shows we have presented. Rehearsals have finished and we have now included several Christmas numbers for our final shows which will run until the end of December.

We still have six shows remaining and already have several bookings for next year. The group is still looking for new members for next year. Anyone out there with singing and dancing skills please apply – Phone Marilyn Hodge on 5529 0776. If you enjoy bringing a little cheer to the elderly and can dedicate some time and talent we welcome you.

Now back to the boards.
