YT ADMINISTRATOR REPORT

The Intermediate Drama classes have performed their annual production, Alice in Wonderland and what a good production this was. The students took their roles very seriously and showed some excellent talent. It was interesting to see the same show performed three times, each time with a different cast. I am sure parents and spectators alike really enjoyed this show. Congratulations to Terri Woodine their teacher and Dana White the assistant teacher, who once again, showed their ability to get the best out of the students.

Fame Jnr – The Musical followed Alice in Wonderland the next week end. There were four productions and each one was sold out. Jessica Papst, Matthew Pearson and Martina French did a wonderful job with the Senior Music Theatre Class. Watching the show it was hard to believe that you were not watching an adult production, the voices were powerful and the students really excelled.

We are fast approaching the end of the year for our classes and we hope to see our current students back in the New Year. Orientation Day is the 23rd January at 10.00 a.m. in the main theatre. Students who are already in a class will shortly be sent an email asking for their preferences for the classes in 2016, I would ask that you complete this information as soon as possible as we have quite a large waiting list for new students.

The organizers of the Youth Theatre at Spotlight wish you all a very Happy Christmas and a wonderful New Year.
